OCTOBER 26, 2009 - SESSION SCHEDULE

2:45-3:00 p.m. Plaza Foyer	Networking Break
3:00-4:00 p.m. Plaza Ballroom	School Policies and the Law Related to Cellular Phones and the Internet (this session is repeat of keynote session from April 28, 2009) Dave Emmert, General Counsel, Indiana School Boards Association The practical frustrations of regulating student cell-phone possession and use are one thing, but the demands of preparing to defend a lawsuit would only raise stress levels geometrically. Consideration will be given to such topics as cell phone content searches, child abuse reporting requirements when certain sexual matter is discovered, confiscation and the length thereof, preserving evidence of a crime, use of jamming equipment and policies. This goal of this session is to raise the level of understanding for administrators to have clear direction in responding to cell phone issues; minimize chance of lawsuits; deter students from rule violations through enhancing their knowledge of consequences, including school discipline.

OCTOBER 27, 2009 - SESSION SCHEDULE

7:30 - 8:30 a.m. Plaza Foyer	Registration
8:30-12:00 p.m. Plaza Ballroom	General Session School Security and Emergency Preparedness: Focusing on Fundamentals Kenneth S. Trump, President, National School Safety and Security Services What have schools learned 10 years after the Columbine tragedy? Lessons will be shared from nationwide school security and crisis plan assessments which consistently reveal continued significant gaps in basic areas of safety planning. This session will focus on practical, cost-effective “nuts-and-bolts” fundamentals of best practices in school security and emergency preparedness. Topics include practical “heightened security” strategies for schools, common gaps found in school security assessments, current trends and strategies in school emergency planning, how to engage school support service staff in comprehensive safe schools plans, and effectively communicating safety issues to parents, media, and the school community. Learn how to stay out of court and out of the headlines by focusing on a “back-to-the-basics” approach to school safety and emergency preparedness fundamentals.
12:00 p.m.	Adjournment (CRU’s and LE certificates will be available)
12:30-3:00 p.m. Plaza Ballroom	School Security and Emergency Preparedness “Parking Lot”: Inside Conversations with National Experts and Indiana Safety Specialist Peers (OPTIONAL SESSION, REQUIRING PRE-AUTHORIZATION) Chuck Hibbert, President, Hibbert Safe School Consulting Kenneth S. Trump, President, National School Safety and Security Services Each school corporation, and individual schools within those districts, face unique operational climates and school-community dynamics. Yet there are also common implementation and political challenges around school safety which cross school-communities nationwide. This session will allow school safety specialists the opportunity to interact with national experts and their peers to discuss specific security and emergency preparedness topics and challenges. Chuck Hibbert and Ken Trump frequently say to school leaders, “We can’t change the climate if we don’t change the conversation.” Join these two national school safety consultants and your fellow school safety specialists for a facilitated conversation on safety specialists’ specific school security and emergency preparedness questions, concerns, and successful strategies from around Indiana and the nation.
